Choose from a range of topics, purpose designed for health care professionals.

Halyard's Education Foundation provides continual professional development hours, covering a growing host of sessions. The program is available complimentary to all Halyard customers and includes the following courses:

THE ROLE OF GLOVES IN A PANDEMIC

COVID-19 has fuelled unprecedented demand for PPE. In this episode, we turn our attention to gloves; looking closely at issues of supply, quality and cost.

THE ROLE OF FACE MASKS IN A PANDEMIC

In this course we examine the role of masks in a pandemic and debunk some common mask myths.

PPE IN A PANDEMIC

In this course we look at PPE used in a pandemic. With global supply shortages, hospitals are faced with the need to know whether certain protective equipment that is available, is actually suitable.

PROTECTING HEALTHCARE WORKERS IN A PANDEMIC

In this course we look at protecting healthcare workers in a COVID-19 environment. What kind of PPE do healthcare workers have access to and what needs to change to reduce transmission?
