

No conflicts of interest to declare

HAI Surveillance in Tasmania

Karen Turnbull - Tasmanian Infection Prevention and Control Unit (TIPCU)
Health Protection, Public Health Services (Tasmanian Representative ACSQHC IPCAG)

► MONDAY, 18TH NOVEMBER 2024

Public Acute Hospitals

Public Acute Hospitals

Private Acute Hospitals

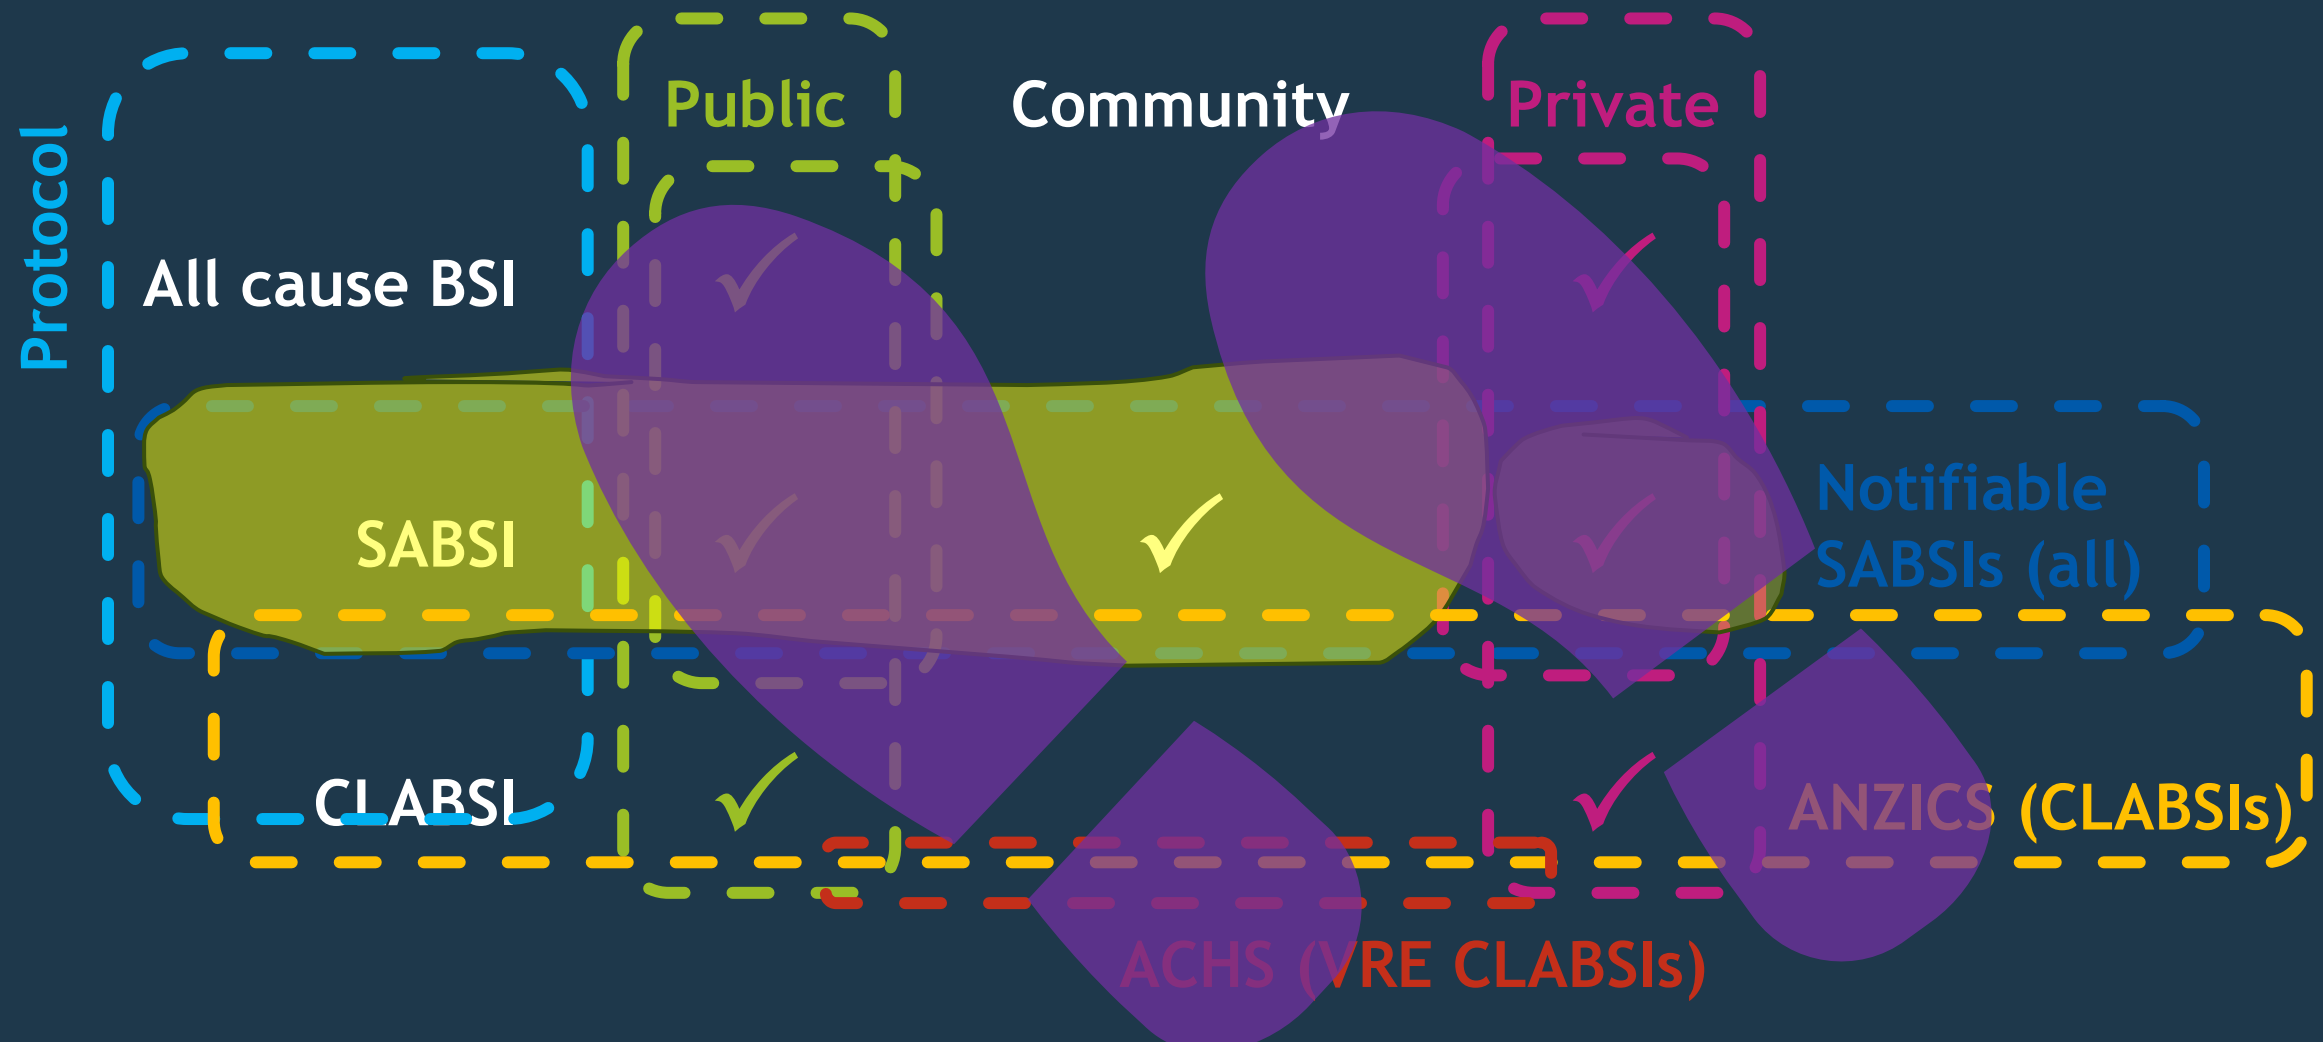

Public Acute Hospitals

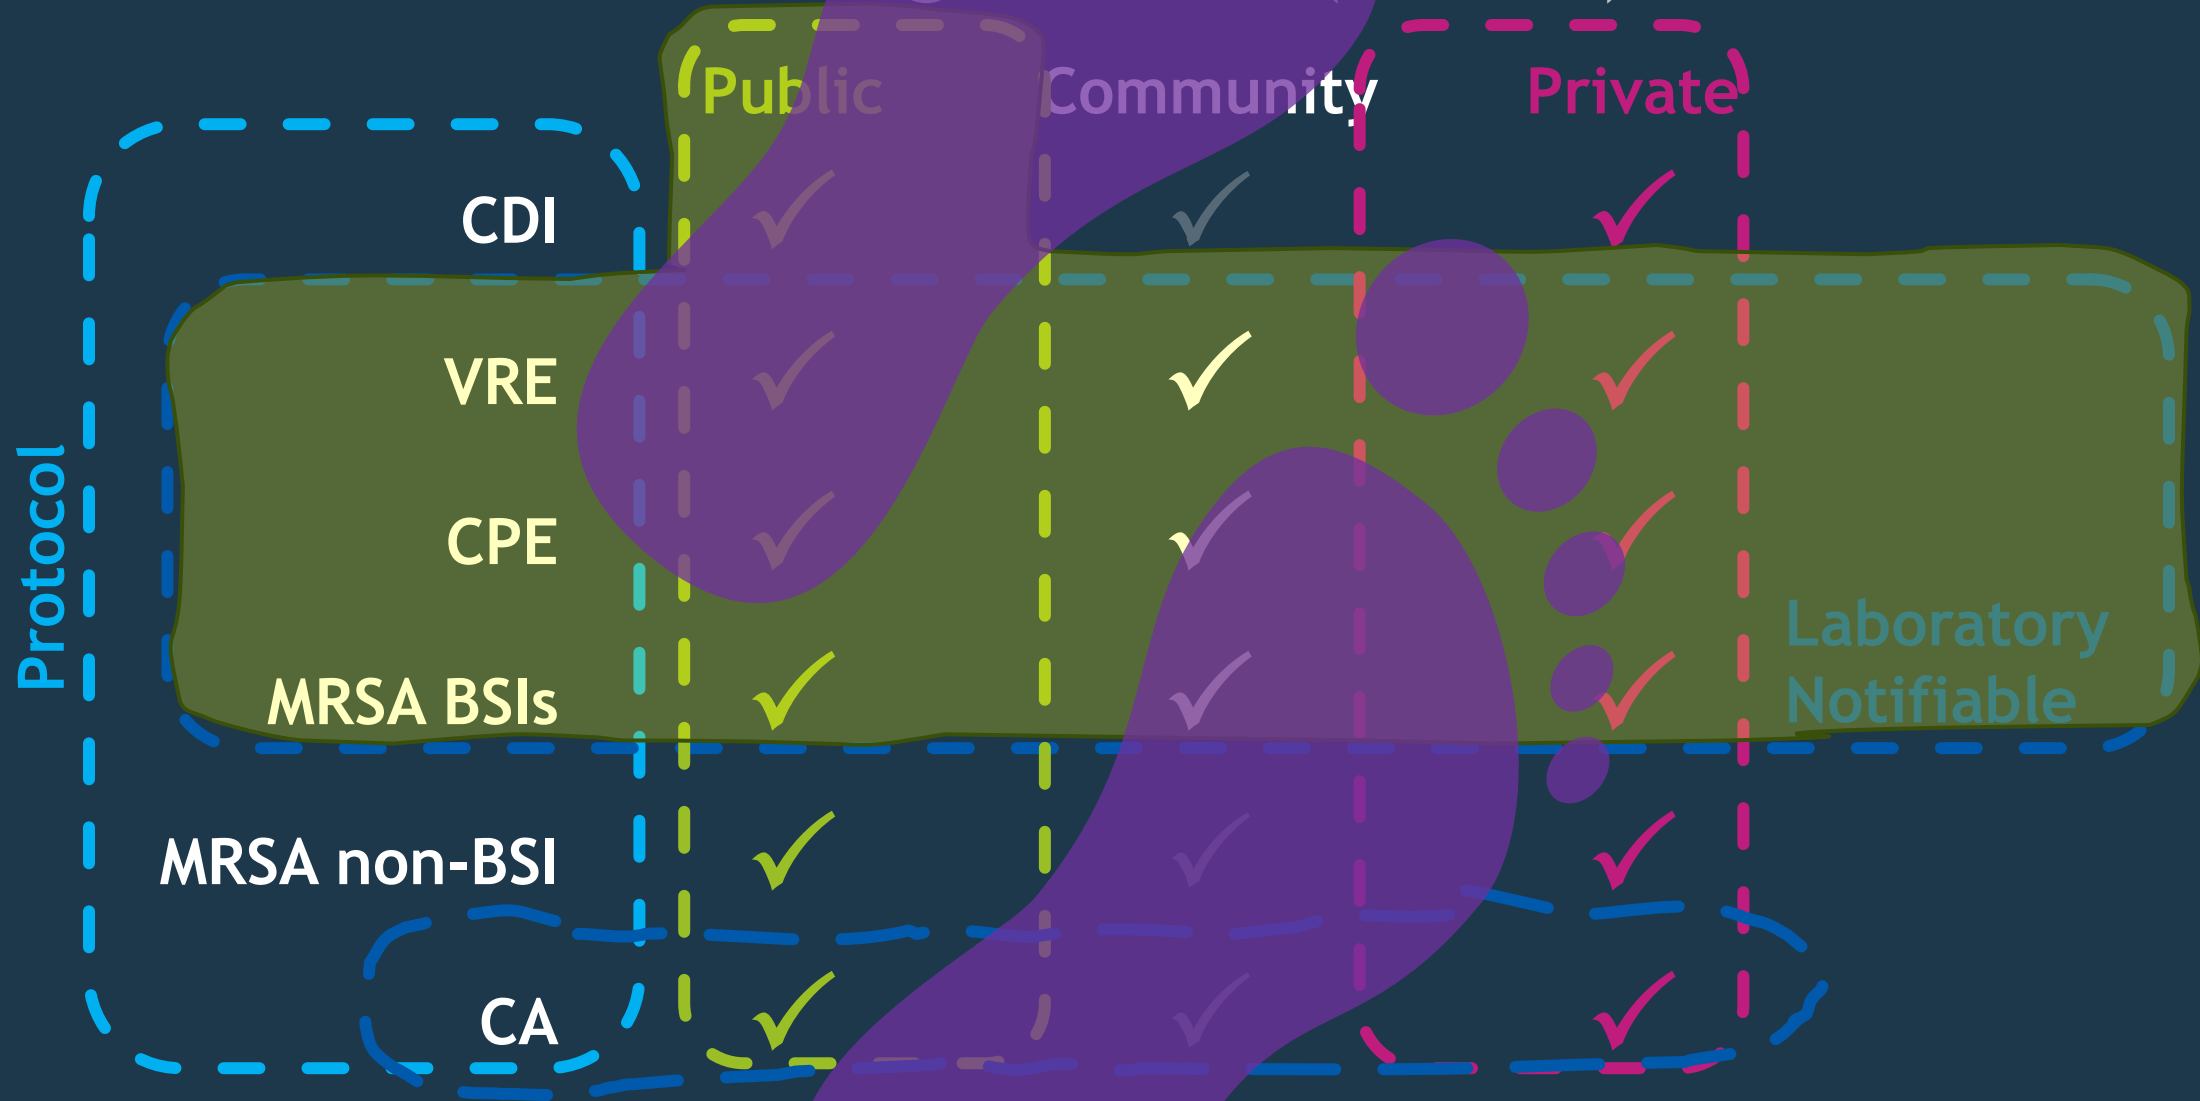

Private Acute Hospitals

TIPCU HQ

HAI surveillance activity & visibility: Blood stream infections (BSIs)

HAI surveillance activity & visibility: Multi-resistant organisms (MROs)

HAI surveillance activity & visibility: Surgical site infections (SSIs)

health.tas.gov.au/health-topics/infection-prevention-and-control

Search: TIPCU

SABSI

VRE

CPE

CDI

HH

AMS

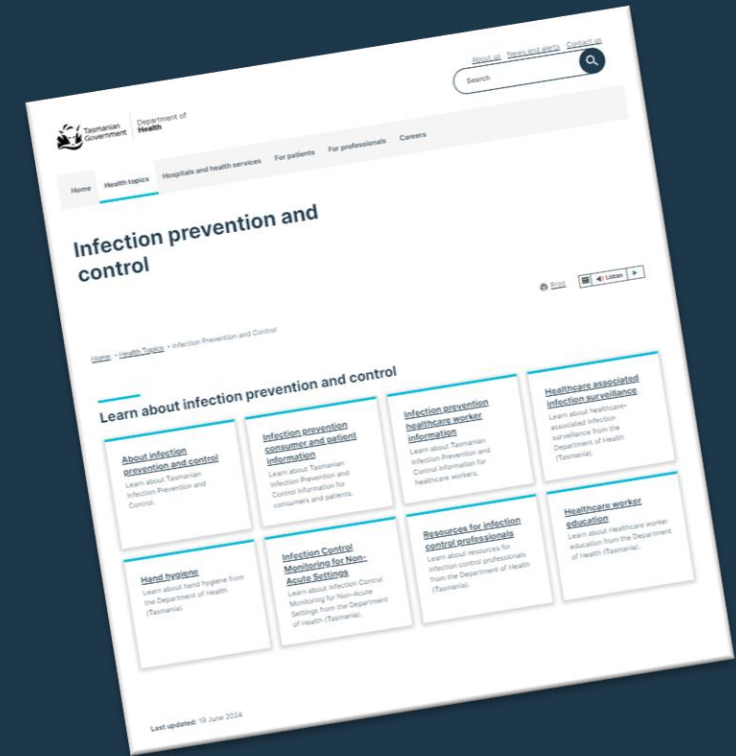

Laboratory notifiable statewide

Acute public hospitals

Acute & district public hospitals

District public hospitals

Challenges

What are your 3 biggest challenges in collecting and reporting meaningful Healthcare Associated Infection (HAI) data?

Surveillance data Time

Challenges

What would you like to see in the future for Tasmanian or National HAI surveillance?

Department of Health
GPO Box 125
Hobart TAS 7001
1300 135 513
www.health.tas.gov.au